Winthrop University Master of Arts in Arts Administration Degree Program

 The Arts Administration program prepares individuals interested in contributing to the creative industry as innovative leaders. Through in-depth preparation, these arts leaders learn how to inspire audiences and their organizations, increase financial support, manage resources, and create innovative strategies that sustain organizations and enable them to prosper, even in challenging times.

The two-year program is offered in two formats: online and in-seat (one weekend a month only). Both formats are perfect for working professionals.

Admission Deadlines: May 1, 2021 for the in-seat program and rolling admission for the online program.

For more information, and to discuss which format best serves your schedule and learning style, contact:

Robert Wildman, Program Director, at wildmanr@winthrop.edu.