

DONOR 25

Giving at the highest level.

DONOR 25 is a development program for the McCormick Arts Council at the Keturah (MACK). Our goal is to increase annual participation for our highest level of giving. Ultimately, we are seeking 25 major donors to aid and support the long-term plans for success for the MACK. Our Major Donors are patrons of the arts who are able and willing to contribute $1,000 or more to our cultural center. These contributions are typically designated to ensure we are able to deliver our signature programs, aid with daily operations, and continue to enhance our organization's service to our community. Through your support, we look forward to achieving our vision to be the foundation of cultural development for McCormick County.

Generous giving for local growth.

Giving at this level is a very personal choice for our donors. Often times, this decision is based on a need to consider a charitable giving program. Giving locally helps to support and grow local development efforts and offer impact that you can see and participate in first hand. This decision can be mutually benefitting and a great way to reduce your annual gross income (AGI), expend required giving through Required Minimum Distributions and help to offer bequest options for family estate planning.
